THREE PERSONS GIVEN

TERMS IN JAIL. Mrs. Ferarro, on Charges of Adultory Gets Six Months - Burglars Get Eight and Twelve Months.

When the session of the criminal superior court was resumed in this city on Friday morning the state attorney resumed his argument in the case of the state vs. Christina F. Ferraro, charged with adultery. He was followed by Judge Wheeler, who charged the jury in a short time, and they considered the case about an hour, reporting a verdict of guilty through their foreman, R. A. Bailey.

The state attorney moved for sentence, and Attorney Douglass spoke for the accused, stating that it was his belief that she was not legally married to Ferarro in Worcester. He and that she was not wholly to blame in the matter. He claimed that she had a child 16 months old to look after and that she had been at work in the mill since her arrest, having been out on bonds.

State Attorney Hull showed a certificate of the birth of a child to the woman in Worcester, which died. It was baptized there. He said that the woman was ignorant, and the way she lived showed the society she came from. The man in the case is to serve a term in prison for attempting to kill her.
